Multiple agencies search for missing man in waters off Nawiliwili

LĪHU'E – Multiple agencies are conducting search operations for a 28-year-old male visitor who went missing after diving into the waters off Nawiliwili around 3:30am on Friday morning.

The multi-agency search party includes the Kaua'i Police Department, Kaua'i Fire Department, U.S. Coast Guard, and the Lifeguards. Helicopters and rescue boats have been deployed as the search and rescue operation is ongoing.

Further details will be provided by the Kaua'i Police Department as the case progresses.
